INTRODUCTION

For our 30th Annual Scientific Conference, we will be at the beautiful Montauk Yacht Club, located on a private waterfront in the East Hampton hamlet of Montauk, which is on the South Fork of Long Island. Friday and Saturday evenings there will be a reception and dinner program and on Saturday evening a Poster Session.

After Saturday morning's Session, there will be time to enjoy the town of Montauk, play golf, tennis, go horseback riding, deep sea fishing or just relax on the beach or by the pool.

This program was carefully selected to bring you the cutting edge of research in our specialty of Allergy and Immunology. At the same time, you will have the opportunity to interact with our internationally and nationally known speakers in a fun-filled and relaxed setting.
